In the Notification of even number dated 30th April, 1973 published in Official Gazette, Series I No. 6 dated 10th May, 1973 in Rule 2(ii) of the Goa, Daman and Diu Civil Service (Sixth Amendment) Rules, 1973, the reference "Part II" may be read as "Part IV".

M. K. Bhandare, Deputy Secretary, (Appointments).

Dated, 11th July, 1973.

Notification

SPL/RRVS/22/73(A)

In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, read with the Government of India, Ministry of External Affairs letter No. F.7(11)/62-Goa dated the 25th July, 1963, the Administrator of Goa, Daman and Diu is pleased to make the following rules relating to the recruitment to the Class III posts in the Labour Commissioner's Office for the Industrial Training Institute under the Govt. of Goa, Daman and Diu.

1. Short title. — These rules may be called Goa Government Industrial Training Institute Class III (Non Ministerial, non-Gazetted) posts Recruitment Rules, 1973.

2. Application. — These rules shall apply to the posts specified in column 1 of the Schedule to these rules.

3. Number, classification and scale of pay. — The number of posts, classification of the said posts and the scales of pay attached thereto shall be as specified in columns 2 to 4 of the said Schedule.

4. Method of recruitment, age limit and other qualifications. — The method of recruitment of the said posts, age limit, qualifications and other matters connected therewith shall be as specified in columns 5 to 13 of the aforesaid Schedule.

Provided that,

- (a) the maximum age limit specified in the Schedule in respect of direct recruitment may be relaxed in the case of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes and other special categories in accordance with the orders issued by the Government from time to time; and
- (b) no male candidate, who has more than one wife living and no female candidate, who has married a person having already a wife living, shall be eligible for appointment, unless the Government, after having been satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so, exempts any such candidate from the operation of this rule.

5. These rules will come into effect from the date of the Notification and will relate to appointments to the various posts made on or after this date. An appointment made prior to this date through a duly constituted Staff Selection Board/Departmental Promotion Committee will be deemed to be a regular appointment, notwithstanding any provisions contained in these rules, and the probation period in that case will extend to six months only from the date of this notification.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

LAW MINISTRY OF

The Police-Forces (Restriction of Rights) Act, 1966

No. 33 of 1966

(2nd December, 1966)

An Act to provide for the restriction of certain rights, conferred by Part III of the Constitution in their application to the members of the Forces charged with the maintenance of public order so as to ensure the proper discharge of their duties and the maintenance of discipline among them.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Seventeenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title, extent and commencement.— (1) This Act may be called the Police-Forces (Restriction of Rights) Act, 1966.

(2) It extends to the whole of India.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as may be appointed in this behalf by notification in the Official Gazette, —

(a) in a Union territory, by the Central Government; and

(b) in a State, by the Government of that State:

Provided that different dates may be appointed by the Central Government for different Union territories.

2. Definitions. — In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, —

(a) "member of a police force" means any person appointed or enrolled under any enactment specified in the Schedule;

(b) "police-force" includes any force charged with the maintenance of public order;

(c) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act.

3. Restrictions respecting right to form association, freedom of speech etc. — (1) No member of a police-force shall, without the express sanction of the Central Government or of the prescribed authority, —

(a) be a member of, or be associated in any way with, any trade union, labour union, political association or with any class of trade unions, labour unions or political associations; or

(b) be a member of, or be associated in any way with, any other society, institution, association or organisation that is not recognised as part of the force of which he is a member or is not of a purely social, recreational or religious nature; or

(c) communicate with the press or publish or cause to be published any book, letter or other document except where such communication or publication is in bona fide discharge of his duties or is of a purely literary, artistic or scientific character of is of a prescribed nature.

Explanation. — If any question arises as to whether any society, institution, association or organization is of a purely social, recreational or religious nature under clause (b) of this sub-section, the decision of the Central Government thereon shall be final.

(2) No member of a police-force shall participate in, or address, any meeting or take Part in any demonstration organised by any body of persons for any political purposes or for such other purposes as may be prescribed.

4. Penalty. — Any person who contravenes the provisions of section 3 shall, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against him, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees, or with both.

5. Power to amend Schedule. — (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, amend the Schedule by including therein any other enactment relating to a force charged with the maintenance of public order or by omitting therefrom any enactment already specified therein and on the publication of the notification such enactment shall be deemed to be specified in, or as the case may be, omitted from, the Schedule.

(2) A copy of every notification issued under sub-section (1) shall be laid before each House of Parliament, as soon as may be, after it is issued.

6. Power to make rules. — (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) Every rule made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days, which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

Notification

2-18-72-LSG

"In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) Section 41 of the Indian Forest Act, 1927 (XVI of 1927) and all other powers enabling it in that behalf, the Government of Goa, Daman and Diu hereby makes the following rules so as to amend the Goa, Daman and Diu Forest Rules, 1964".

1. Short title and commencement.— (1) These rules may be called the Goa, Daman and Diu (First Amendment) Forest Rules, 1973.

(2) They shall come into force at once.

2. Amendment of rule 44.— For the rule 44 of the Goa, Daman and Diu Forest Rules, 1964 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Rules) the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"44. Control of private saw pits, saw mills or any other sawing contrivances.— (1) No saw pit or any other hand-sawing contrivance for cutting or converting timber shall be established within any reserved forest and protected forest or within 15 kilometers of the limits or such forests without obtaining a licence from the concerned Range Forest Officer.

(2) No person shall establish a saw mill or erect machinery or plant or any other sawing contrivance other than those specified in sub-rule (1) for cutting or converting of timber, anywhere in the Union territory without obtaining a licence from the concerned Divisional Forest Officer.

(3) Application for grant or renewal of licence shall be made to the concerned Forest Officers in such form as the Conservator of Forest in Goa, Daman and Diu may, by notification in the Official Gazette, prescribe.

(4) Fees at the following rates shall be charged for the issue or renewal of licences:—

(a) Licence for a saw pit or any hand-sawing contrivance—

Rs. 10/- for each pit or contrivance for an official year or a fraction thereof.

(b) Licence for a saw mill, machinery or plant or any other sawing contrivance other than those mentioned in (a) above—

Rs. 200/- for an official year or a fraction thereof.

(5) The Forest Officer receiving the application may, if he is satisfied after making such enquiry as he deems necessary, that there is no objection to grant the licence, having regard to the safeguarding of the timber in any reserved forest and protected forest, grant a licence in Form I appended to these rules subject to the provisions of the Act and these rules and to any other reasonable restrictions or conditions which he may specify in the licence. Separate licences shall be issued for works to be carried out in different places.

(6) Such Forest Officer may, after giving the applicant an opportunity of being heard, for reasons to be recorded in writing, reject any application for grant or renewal of a licence, whereupon the applicant, unless he appeals against the orders of rejection under sub-rule (10), shall be entitled to the refund of the fee remitted by him under sub-rule (4).

(7) If the officer issuing the licence is satisfied that the original licence issued to a licensee is lost, destroyed or otherwise rendered useless, he may, on payment of a fee of Rs. 2/- issue a duplicate of the licence originally issued.

(8) The officer issuing the licence may, at any time, for reasons to be recorded in writing, cancel or suspend any licence; provided, no such rejection shall be made before giving the applicant an opportunity of being heard in the matter.

(9) Copy of every order under sub-rule (6) or under sub-rule (8) shall be granted to the applicant or licensee, as the case may be, by the Forest Officer passing such order.

(10) Any person aggrieved by an order under sub-rule (6) or (8) may, within three months of the receipt of the copy of the order under sub-rule (9), present an appeal thereupon in writing to the Divisional Forest Officer, if the order is in respect of a licence under sub-rule (1) and to the Conservator of Forests, if the order is in respect of a licence under sub-rule (2) and their decisions shall be final. Appeal applications received after the specified period shall be summarily rejected.

3. Insertion of new rule.—After rule 44 of the principal Rules the following shall be inserted, namely:—

"44-A. Duties of the licensee.—(1) No licensee shall undertake sawing of timber belonging to other persons on job-work, unless he is satisfied about the bonafides of such timber by examining the connected pass or way-permit and the marks on the timber. If he suspects the bonafides of the timber, he shall detain the timber and immediately report the fact to the nearest Forest Officer or Police Officer for taking further action.

(2) The licensee shall stack the timber of other persons received by him for sawing on job-work separately, both before and after it is sawn.

(3) Every licensee shall maintain registers in Forms II and III appended to these Rules and produce the same for checking when demanded by any Forest Officer not below the rank of a Forester".

4. Insertion of Forms.—After the chapter X of the principal Rules the following Forms shall be inserted namely:—
